2022 - ROUND 21

CLUB WELCOME

Welcome back to the Sydney United Sports Centre, where Sydney United will face Manly United in what is the final home game in the NPL NSW men's competition for the 2022 season. It does not look like the boys in red-white and blue will be playing finals football this year but they can still have an impact in the race for finals football as Manly need a win to secure their spot.

It's been an interesting season for the United boys, after changing managers mid-season to Miro Vlastelica who has done well since taking over, however it leaves the question: could the boys have secured finals football? Or finished premiers? Had Miro Vlastelica been in charge from the beginning.

Thank you to all supporters for coming down to every game but stay tuned as the boys are still competing in the Australia Cup and Waratah Cup.

#UnitedWeStand

On the Wednesday 3rd of August, 7:30pm Sydney United will be facing Monaro Panthers from ACT in the Australia Cup round of 32 at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Please keep an eye out on our social media about tickets going on sale soon!

MATCH PREVIEW

With both teams coming off wins it should be an entertaining match as Manly United travel out to Edensor Park to try to secure their place in the finals.

In fourth spot on the ladder and only two points behind Blacktown in the top spot, the Northern Beaches outfit will need to gain maximum points from this match if they have any chance at the Premiership title and to keep out Sydney FC, APIA Leichhardt and Rockdale Ilinden, who are hot on their heels.

Sydney United 58 had their first win in five matches over Sydney FC last week and will be looking to cause another upset to a finals contender before their 2022 campaign comes to a close.

With plenty of talent and experience across both teams there will be plenty for football fans to appreciate as these two teams head into battle in the penultimate round of the season.

FIRST GRADE REVIEWS

Sydney FC 0 – Sydney United 58 FC 1 at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 managed to upset Sydney FC's finals hopes with a 1-0 victory over the young Sky Blues at Rockdale Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

A 90th minute goal to Kyle Cimenti was all the visitors needed to upset the hosts, after Sydney FC went down to 10 men in the first half of the match.

Despite the young, energetic sky blues creating some great opportunities throughout the match, United 58's experience saw them hold out for a late victory that sees Sydney FC's finals fight become a much harder battle.

Manly United FC 2 – Mt Druitt Town Rangers FC 0 at Cromer Park

Thomas Fay bagged a quick-fire brace as Manly United returned to winning ways with a 2-0 victory over Mount Druitt Rangers at Cromer Park on Friday night, which also reignited the club's Premiership hopes.

Both goals arrived in the space of two minutes to help Adam Griffiths' men push for an all-important top five position as well as a shot at the Premiership with two rounds to play.
